PROFILE

A dedicated 20-year-old, second-year programming student currently pursuing an associate degree, seeking my first job opportunity at Atlas Copco. Eager to apply the skills and knowledge gained through academic projects and coursework in a professional environment, while contributing to the company's technological growth and gaining valuable hands-on experience.

PROJECTS

RESTAURANT CHAIN APP

Developed a simple restaurant chain management app using Spring Boot, Thymeleaf, Java, and H2 database. The app allows users to view menus, restaurant location and manage restaurant branches with a clean and efficient interface.
